- b. All members of Convocation of the University shall be qualified to vote either by themselves or by proxy in accordance with rules and regulations governing such voting.
- c. The Returning Officer shall be the Registrar who shall be responsible for conducting the election by secret ballot. The Registrar shall conduct the election in accordance with the system defined in Schedule A to these Statutes. He shall be assisted by three Scrutineers appointed by the Academic Board. No election shall be valid unless and until the Scrutineers have unanimously certified in writing to the Academic Board that the counting of the votes and the declaration of the candidates elected have been correctly carried out.
- d. A candidate for election shall be nominated by completing a nomination form as in Schedule M to these Statutes. The completed form shall be submitted to the Registrar.
- e. If the nominees for a position are more than three, Convocation shall conduct a preliminary ballot to select three candidates for that position, one of whom shall be elected in accordance with Schedule A to these Statutes.
- f. Except as provided for in paragraph (a) of this Statute, the term of office of a Convocation member of Council shall be two calendar years reckoned from the first day of January following his election.
- g. Elections to Council shall be held as soon as possible at the beginning of the Academic Year, and in any event, not later than the 30th day of November. The Registrar shall notify all members of Convocation of the existence of vacancies on Council, and shall at the same time call for nominations allowing two weeks for these to be received. He shall then notify all members of Convocation of the date of the election which shall not be later than two weeks after the date on which nominations closed.
- h. Of the two Convocation members of Council, one shall be Professorial and one shall be Non-Professorial. The election shall be conducted in two divisions, namely, Professorial Division and Non-Professorial Division with separate lists of candidates and separate ballot papers for each Division. All members of Convocation shall be entitled to vote in each Division.
- i. If a Non-Professorial Member of Council attains Professorial status during his tenure of office, his membership shall cease forthwith and the vacancy filled in accordance with this Statute.
- j. If a vacancy in the University representation on Council occurs during the year through death, resignation, or any other cause, the Registrar shall immediately notify the members of Convocation of such vacancy and shall conduct a bye-election. Such a bye-election shall be conducted in the same way as regular elections, and the person so elected shall hold office for the residue of the term for which the member whom he replaces was elected.

 - v. The Registrar shall be Member/Secretary to the Committee. In the absence of the Registrar, any one appointed to serve as Secretary shall be of the rank not below that of Deputy Registrar.
- c. The Disciplinary Committee shall have power to recommend to the Vice Chancellor the imposition of any of the penalties stipulated in 1(c) of this Statute.

- d. The recommendations of the Disciplinary Committee and the action taken by the Vice Chancellor shall be communicated by the Vice Chancellor to Council at its next meeting.
- e. In all proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee, the Senior Member affected shall be entitled to written notice of the grounds on which the proceedings are initiated and the right of appearance before the Committee for the purpose of explaining his conduct.
- f. In all proceedings of the Disciplinary Committee, the Senior Member affected shall be entitled to call witnesses on his behalf and the Committee shall similarly be entitled to call and to hear witnesses.
- g. A Senior Member adversely affected by any decision of the Vice Chancellor, after consideration of the recommendation of the Disciplinary Committee shall be entitled, within fourteen days of the receipt of the decision, to petition the Vice Chancellor for a review of the decision. Where he is dissatisfied with the review, he may appeal to Council against such a decision. The decision of Council shall be final.
- h. Where a Senior Member has been charged with a disciplinary offence which in the opinion of the Vice Chancellor is serious or prejudicial to the proper discharge of the duties of the Senior Member concerned, the Vice Chancellor, as the Chief Disciplinary Officer of the University, may, in pursuance of his powers under Statute (7a), interdict the Senior Member. It shall be the duty of the Vice Chancellor to ensure that the matter is determined as expeditiously as possible. The Vice Chancellor shall report to Council at its next meeting the circumstances leading to any action taken.

3. Discipline of Staff other than Senior Members

- a. Any member of the University being a Senior Staff or Junior Staff as defined in Statute 1 may, for good cause, be disciplined by the Vice Chancellor in accordance with the Unified Conditions of Service for Unionised Staff of the Public Universities of Ghana and others which may be provided for by rules and regulations as mentioned in Schedule G to these Statutes. The Vice Chancellor may delegate such authority, subject to such procedures as he considers appropriate.
- b. The person concerned must be notified in writing of the grounds on which disciplinary action is being taken against him and must be given reasonable opportunity to defend himself before a disciplinary committee constituted by the Vice Chancellor.

4. Discipline of Junior Members

- a. A Junior Member of the University may for good cause be disciplined by the Vice Chancellor in accordance with the Student Guide of UMaT and others which may be provided for by rules and regulations as mentioned in Schedule G to these Statutes. The Vice Chancellor may delegate his

- authority, subject to such procedures, as he considers appropriate.
- b. The body responsible for the management of each Hall and other residential facility shall be responsible for taking disciplinary action against any Junior Member for any breach of discipline in the Hall or residential facility provided that where the breach of discipline may result in dismissal or is in the opinion of the body a major breach of discipline, the matter shall be referred to the Vice Chancellor for his decision. Where the Vice Chancellor decides on dismissal, he shall report the fact to the Academic Board at its next meeting.
 - c. The person affected must be notified in writing of the grounds on which disciplinary action is being taken against him and must be given reasonable opportunity to defend himself before a disciplinary committee constituted by the Vice Chancellor.

Statute 40: APPOINTMENTS BY THE VICE CHANCELLOR

- a. The Vice Chancellor shall be the appointing authority of all employees of the University other than Senior Members. The procedure for such appointment shall be as specified in Schedule H to these Statutes.
- b. The Vice Chancellor may delegate such power to the Pro Vice Chancellor or the Registrar.
- c. The Vice Chancellor may, in exigencies, recommend a Senior Member for appointment to the UAPC.
- d. The conditions of service of the employees of the University referred to in the foregoing three paragraphs of this Statute shall be determined by Council.

Statute 41: TERMS OF APPOINTMENT OF SENIOR MEMBERS

The terms of appointment of a Senior Member shall be specified in his letter of appointment. In addition the following provisions shall be observed:

- a.
 - i. Each Senior Member shall conform to such directions and regulations as have been or shall be given and adopted by the University.
 - ii. Each Senior Member shall give such time and labour as shall be considered sufficient by the Vice Chancellor and the Head of Department to the work of the Department to which he is attached and to its extension and development and to the general interest of the University. He shall also not undertake or continue in any other work or occupation of any kind which may, in the opinion of the Vice Chancellor or the Head of Department, interfere with the proper performance of his duties or be detrimental to the interest of the University. No employee of the University shall undertake any other job without the explicit permission of the Vice Chancellor or his delegated authority.

- b. Consultancy services may be rendered provided that:
 - i. such projects are integrated into the research and teaching programmes of the various Academic Departments and regulated to ensure that there is no conflict between the private interests of a Senior Member and his official duties;
 - ii. the Senior Member has obtained the written permission for engaging in consultancy work;
 - iii. the Head of Department ensures that a Senior Member does not undertake any outside work if his normal duties would be disrupted; and
 - iv. where abuses of the facility are proved, appropriate disciplinary action, including payment for use and/or withdrawal of the facility, shall be taken by the Vice Chancellor.
- c. Whether the services referred to in Section (b) of this Statute are undertaken by individuals or groups, the following rules shall apply:
 - i. The University will levy a charge of 20% of the gross earnings where University facilities are used;
 - ii. Where no University facilities or equipment are used, the University will levy a charge of 10% of the gross earnings; and
 - iii. In both cases a declaration of earnings shall be made to the Vice Chancellor and income tax laws complied with.
- d. Any work using research grants of any form shall also be considered as consultancy and attract the respective levies.

Statute 42: RESIGNATION, RETIREMENT AND TERMINATION OF APPOINTMENT OF SENIOR MEMBERS

- a. Except as may otherwise be provided by Council, a Senior Member may resign his appointment or notify his voluntary retirement and thereby terminate his engagement with the University on giving, in writing under his signature to the Vice Chancellor at least six months' notice terminating on the last day of July of the year in which his resignation or voluntary retirement takes effect. The Senior Member shall pay six months salary in lieu of notice.
- b. Except as may be otherwise provided in special cases by Council, a Senior Member appointed to a full-time position in the University or on a renewable contract shall retire from his appointment and all other offices held by him in the University by virtue of his appointment at the end of the academic year in which he attains the retiring age as specified by the University. For the purpose of this clause, the academic year is presumed to end on the 31st day of July.
- c. Council may at anytime terminate the appointment of any Senior Member whose services are no longer required by the University by giving him/her six months' notice in writing. In lieu of six month's notice, the University shall pay six months salary.

- d. A Senior member whose appointment is terminated may appeal to Council in writing within one month of receipt of notice. Where a person appeals against a notice of termination of his appointment, Council shall consider the appeal at least two months before the date on which the termination is due to take effect, and Council's decision shall be final.
- e.

Statute 43: POWER TO MAKE REGULATIONS

- a. The Academic Board, Convocation, and the Welfare Services Board respectively may make regulations for their own procedures and for the exercise of their respective powers under the Act or under these Statutes, subject to the approval of Council.
- b. The Academic Board or Convocation or the Welfare Services Board shall not make or ratify any regulation altering, revoking, or adding to the Regulations for the time being in force except at its ordinary meeting and provided that notice of the proposed regulations has been given on the agenda paper of such meeting.
- c. Each Committee of the Academic Board and the Welfare Services Board, and each Faculty Board may from time to time, subject in each case to review by the Academic Board or the Welfare Services Board as the case may be make regulations for its own procedure and for the exercise of the power assigned to it by these Statutes or delegated to it by or under regulation of the Academic Board, or the Welfare Services Board.
- d. Each Committee of the Academic Board or the Welfare Services Board shall report to the Academic Board or the Welfare Services Board as the case may be at its next sitting any action or actions taken by it in accordance with its general functions or any action specifically delegated to it by the Academic Board or the Welfare Services Board.

RULES ON DISCIPLINE IN THE UNIVERSITY (UNDER STATUTE 39)

The offences which constitute misconduct in the University are detailed in the following documents:

- i. Code of Conduct for Senior Members;
 - ii. Unified Conditions of Service for Unionised Staff of the Public Universities of Ghana; and
 - iii. The Student Guide of UMaT for Junior Members.
1. These Rules shall be referred to as the Disciplinary Rules and, except as provided, shall apply to all staff and students of the University.
 2. Any act done without reasonable excuse by a person to whom these Rules apply which amounts to a failure to perform in a proper manner any duty imposed on him as such, or which contravenes any regulation, instruction or directive relating to employees or Junior Members of the University, or which is otherwise prejudicial to the efficient functioning of the University, or tends to bring the University into disrepute shall constitute a misconduct; and the setting forth in Rules 3 and 4 of particular types of misconduct shall not be taken to affect the generality of this Rule.
 3. It is a misconduct for an employee of the University:
 - a. to be absent from duty without leave or reasonable excuse;
 - b. to be insubordinate;
 - c. to use, without the consent of the appropriate authority, any property or facilities provided for the purpose of the University, for some other purpose not connected with the work of the University and/or not within his scope of responsibilities;
 - d. to engage in any activity which is likely to bring the University into disrepute;

- e. to engage in any gainful occupation outside the University without the written consent of the Vice Chancellor.
4. It shall be a misconduct for a Junior Member of the University:
 - a. to be absent from the campus, without permission or reasonable excuse;
 - b. to be absent from lectures and other prescribed assignments without permission or reasonable excuse;
 - c. to be insubordinate;
 - d. to indulge in any anti-social activities while in residence or outside the campus which tends to bring the University into disrepute.
 - e. to indulge in examination malpractice; and
 - f. to assault or cause assault to any member of the University
 5. For breaches of any of the provisions of Rules 2, 3 and 4, any of the penalties, as appropriate, specified in Statute 39 may be imposed in any disciplinary proceedings.
 6. Disciplinary proceedings involving the imposition of minor penalties shall be conducted summarily.
 7. Where in the opinion of the Vice Chancellor a major penalty should be imposed in any disciplinary proceedings, he shall appoint official(s) within the University above the rank of the person to be disciplined to conduct an enquiry into the charges and make appropriate recommendations to him;
 - a. in the case of Junior Staff the Vice Chancellor shall appoint an ad hoc Committee on which a representative of the Junior Staff shall serve;
 - b. in the case of Senior Staff he shall appoint an ad hoc Committee on which a representative of the Senior Staff shall serve; and
 - c. in the case of Senior Members he shall refer the matter to the Disciplinary Committee established under Statute 39 (2) to conduct an enquiry into the charges and make appropriate recommendations to the Vice Chancellor.
 - a. In every case where a disciplinary enquiry is to be conducted under Rule 7, the person concerned shall be served with written charges and be given the opportunity to state the grounds on which he proposes to exculpate himself. He shall also be entitled to be accompanied to the enquiry by a friend and to call witnesses on his behalf and to hear the evidence of any witnesses against him.
 - b. If no reply is received within the time specified in the notice, the Disciplinary Committee will proceed with the enquiry in his presence or in his absence.
 - c. The provisions will apply in every case against any offender whether he is within or outside the country.
 9. A person adversely affected by any decision of the Vice Chancellor, shall be entitled to petition within seven (7) days of notification to him of the decision, the Vice Chancellor for a review of the decision. Where any such petition is refused and communicated to him by the Vice Chancellor, the person concerned shall be entitled to appeal within fourteen (14) days after any such refusal to the University Council. The decision of Council shall be final. In the case of minor penalties any aggrieved person adversely affected by a decision may, within seven (7) days, appeal to the Vice Chancellor whose decision shall be final.

10. All major penalties imposed on Junior Members shall be subject to ratification by the Vice Chancellor.
11. In all disciplinary proceedings which may result in the imposition of major penalties, except in the case of Junior Members, the Vice Chancellor may interdict the person(s) affected until the final determination of the cases against them. During the period of interdiction the person shall receive two-thirds of his salary plus the sum of any deductions made from his salary in University account, but shall not be paid any of the approved allowances to which he would normally have been entitled.
12. a. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 11 of these Rules, any member of staff who absents himself from duty without leave or reasonable cause, shall not be entitled to his salary for the period that he stays away from duty. The non-payment of salary shall be without prejudice to any disciplinary action which may be taken against him.
b. Without prejudice to the taking of disciplinary proceedings in respect of any absence from duty without leave or reasonable cause for more than ten consecutive working days, the staff may be regarded as having resigned from his employment without notice. If his whereabouts are known he shall be informed in writing that his absence from duty has been thus regarded.
c. Cheating or any other malpractice in examination by any junior member of the University is punishable by dismissal.
